

Pandora
PANDORA

One of Sweden's best-selling
solo artists

1993: Trust Me debuts.

1993: Trust Me becomes the best-selling single of the year in Sweden.

1993: Releases One of a Kind.

1995: Releases Tell the World.

1996: Tell the World spends 6 months at #1 on Japan's ZIP FM.

1997: Releases Changes.

1998: Releases This Could Be Heaven.

1998: Records Spirit to Win, the official song for the German Olympic Team. Performs it at the Nagano Winter Olympics.

1999: A Little Bit (Double M's version) sells 80K+ copies in Australia, earning Gold.

1999: Releases Blue.

1999: Releases Breathe.

1999: Releases No Regrets.

1996–2000: Sells over 2 M records in Japan. Becomes Universal Victor Inc.'s best-selling international artist of all time – a record she still holds today.

2001: Releases A Little Closer.

2002: Releases Won't Look Back.

2003: Competes in Melodifestivalen with You.

2004: Competes in Melodifestivalen with Runaway.

2005: Releases 9 Lives.

2007: Releases Celebration – United DJs vs Pandora.

2008: Returns to Japan for radio promo and live shows for Celebration.

2011: Releases Head Up High.

2011: Releases Why-Magistral feat. Stacy.

2012: Releases Drottningen av Åland for YLE X3M.

2017: Returns to Australia for the Ultimate Wild Tour.

2020: Competes as Peacock on Masked Singer Suomi.

2021: Places 2nd in UMK with Teflon Brothers. I Love You peaks at #2 in Finland.

2021: Releases MORE, the official World Floorball Championships anthem together with EGiM and Takomo.

2023: Celebrates her 30th anniversary as an artist with a Level Up theme.

2023: Jubilee concert at Musiikkitalo with the Riku Niemi Orchestra.

2024: Features on Laiffi är nu, released on Vain Elämää.

2024: Trust Me starts trending on TikTok, particularly in Germany.

2024: Trust Me hits 20 million streams on Spotify.

2025: Releases Trust Me 25.

12 studio albums, several compilations

Over 6 million records sold worldwide

21 Gold and Platinum Awards across three continents

